

Media Alert:

ESTECH INVITES THE PUBLIC TO OPEN MIC AND SCIENCE CAFÉ

For immediate Release: March 10, 2009

ESTech invites the public to two free events in April in Eagle, Idaho.

ESTech's Open Mic is like a high tech Iron Chef. Four companies will present their funding needs to investors. Find out what attributes of an emerging company are of keen interest to investors. Each company will have 10 minutes to present, followed by 5 minutes for Q&A. The Open Mic will take place on April 1 at 6 pm at the Bella Aquila, 775 S Rivershore Lane in Eagle, ID 83616. The event is open for public viewing and is free. Companies who are interested in presenting at the event should fill out an application at ESTech's Web site at www.estech.org and tell us why you should be given the opportunity to present. Investors interested in participating please check ESTech's web site at www.estech.org. For more information about the Open Mic contact Miles Mahoney 208-938-2680 (mahoneymiles@gmail.com)

Ever wonder how cells grow or mutate? The public is invited to ESTech's Science Café on April 18, Eagle Library, 100 N Stierman Way, Eagle, Idaho at 3 pm. Why does a cell become an eye instead of ear? Learn about cell biology and see skin tissue grow from Crowley Davis. The Science Café is free to the public. For more information about the Science Café contact Norris Krueger 208-440-3747 (norris.krueger@gmail.com)

ESTech was formed in 2008 to attract world-class, technology-based companies into the region, improve each respective companies' competitiveness and skills base, and make the area more attractive to future companies, residents, workers, investors, and developers. ESTech is also committed to helping existing businesses to grow and to help nurture new entrepreneurial startups. The primary goal is to help to vitalize the regional economy, which will spill over to a stronger and more robust economy for the State of Idaho—and, ultimately, the nation.

For more information about ESTech visit their Web site <http://www.estech.org>.